Data For Decision

A PROJECT OF:

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH:

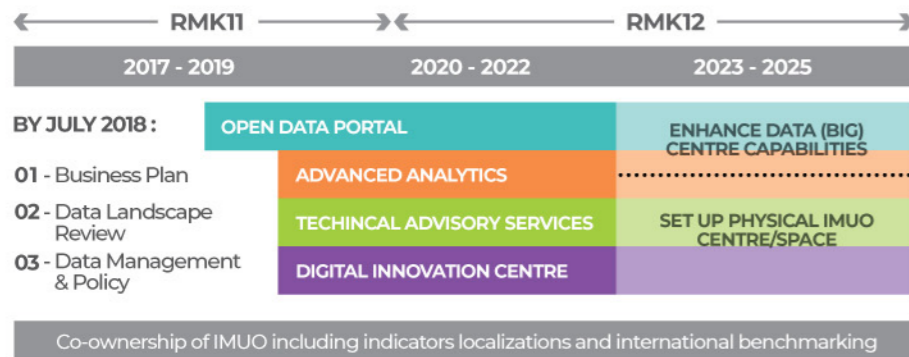

WHAT IS URBAN OBSERVATORY

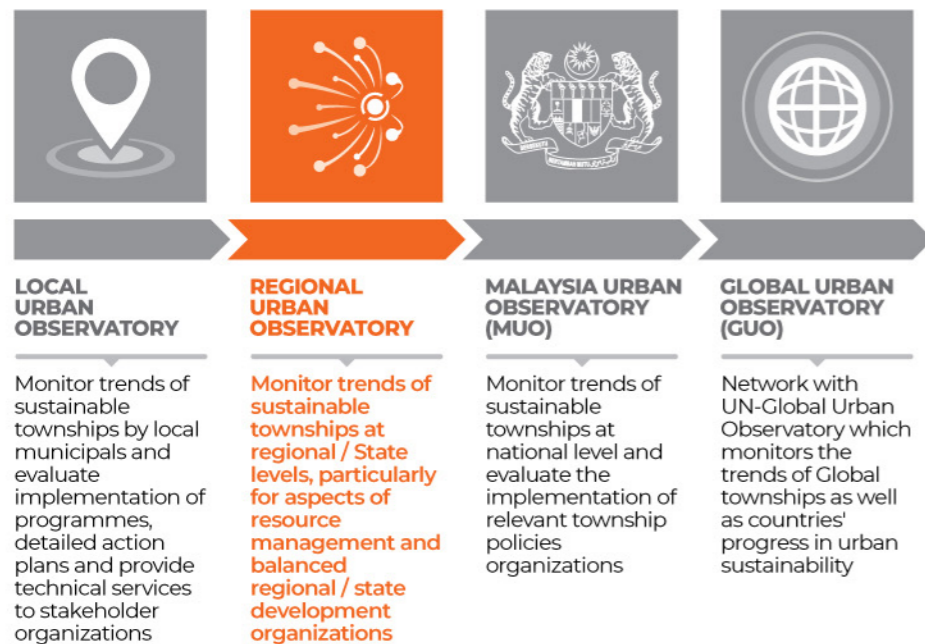

"A network of stakeholders responsible for producing, analysing and disseminating data in a meaningful set of indicators that reflect collectively in prioritizing issues on sustainable urban development. Data and information resources produced by the local networks are used to support decision-making and formulation of better-informed policies. An urban observatory is therefore a focal point for urban monitoring at the local, national or regional scale."

UN Habitat

- 01 - A CENTRAL DATA CENTER to collate, update, analyze, manage and disseminate data and information-open data portal
- 02 - A KNOWLEDGE HUB to improve region-wide base of urban knowledge - digital innovation center
- 03 - A MONITORING AND ASSESSMENT CENTRE to monitor the progress of CDPii implementation, urban condition and trends - advanced analytics
- 04 - TECHNICAL SERVICES that help to monitor programmes and provide capacity building in implementing policies at the local level
